Service of the Word and Holy Communion

Based on Evangelical Lutheran Worship

Congregational responses are in bold print

Welcome

We welcome you in the name of Christ. We love welcoming guests/visitors and encourage you to complete one of the blue “Welcome to Grace” cards found in the pews and place it in the offering plate, or scan this QR Code with your smart phone to complete the visitor card digitally. You are encouraged to join in all parts of worship. Everything you need is printed in this worship booklet. All who desire to receive Holy Communion are welcome at the table. If you do not wish to receive, you are still welcome to come forward for a blessing! For instructions on how to receive the bread and wine, see the Communion section later in this bulletin. Portions of worship in bold print are to be spoken by the whole congregation.

Accessibility

We want to ensure that all who gather for worship feel welcome and know that you have a place at Grace, just as you are. We stand for portions of our worship service, but the invitation is always to stand “as you are comfortable”. Please feel free to remain seated, if you prefer. Additionally, for a variety of reasons, individuals may choose to participate in communion by using Gluten Free Communion Wafers and/or Grape Juice, which are available on the table in the center of the aisle as you come forward.

Our Worship

Our worship is rooted in the ancient pattern of the church – gathering, word, meal, sending. The shape of this liturgy and much of the actual words/prayers come directly from scripture. Though we make seasonal shifts, the constancy of our worship reflects God’s constant love and promises through forgiveness, scripture, and the sacraments of baptism and communion. Following this liturgical pattern, as well as the Revised Common Lectionary (a three-year cycle of scripture readings appointed for each day), we are connected through our worship with Christians around the world and throughout time.

Worship will be livestreamed. Digital ministry is an essential part of our community with our live-stream allowing those at home to worship alongside our gathered community for a service of Holy Communion. The cameras will be primarily focused on our worship leaders and offer some wide-angle views of the Sanctuary. If you have questions or concerns about appearing on camera, contact Pastor Alex Zuber.

Other Notes

Restrooms are located to your left as you face the rear of the church.

Children are fully welcome in worship. There are activity bags in the back of the sanctuary, to the right as you face the rear of the church, and we have a nursery down the hall to the left as you face the rear of the church if you would like a place to step out and reset. But rest assured, we would rather a child be here making the sounds that children make than absent from our community. As much as we value music in our community, there is no sweeter hymn that will be sung than the sounds of children being present, learning the pattern of worship, and hearing the gospel!

GATHERING

We come from our homes, our labor, our struggles, and our joys – which we share in fellowship as a Christian community. We are gathered together as God's people to worship. In this first part of our worship, we share together honestly – our sins in confession, our joy in forgiveness, our gratitude for the gift of Baptism.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

We stand and face the baptismal font. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, who pours love into our hearts and healing upon the earth.
Amen.

Confident that God justifies us by grace through faith,
let us confess our sin.

Silence for reflection.

Compassionate God,
we confess that we struggle to embody your goodness in the world and in our own hearts.

Creation groans from overuse.

Jealousy and bitterness strain our relationships.

Indifference keeps us from seeking justice.

Divisions disrupt your call to show genuine love to others.

Turn our hearts back to you.

Restore our world and reconcile us to one another.

Renew us to live as your holy people, following the way of Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Hear this good news: We have peace with God through ☩ Jesus Christ, in whom there is no condemnation, but only forgiveness and the promise of eternal life.
Receive freely this healing gift of grace.

Amen.

The congregation turns and faces the cross as the procession approaches the altar, reminding us that Christ leads us into the presence and love of God.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

HYMN OF PRAISE

Let Us Go to the House of the Lord

Shout - ed out in Je - sus' name.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

O Lord God, enliven and preserve your church with your perpetual mercy. Without your help, we mortals will fail; remove far from us everything that is harmful, and lead us toward all that gives life and salvation, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

We sit.

WORD

The first half of our liturgy focuses on the Word of God through the reading of scripture and preaching. The pattern of reading, singing, reading, singing is an ancient one, which comes from Christianity's roots in Jewish synagogue worship.

FIRST READING: Ezekiel 33:7-11

A reading from Ezekiel:

⁷ So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. ⁸ If I say to the wicked, "O wicked ones, you shall surely die," and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand. ⁹ But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

¹⁰ Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel: Thus you have said: "Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?" ¹¹ Say to them: As I live, says the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways, for why will you die, O house of Israel?

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 119:33-40

³³ Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, and I shall keep it to the end.

³⁴ Give me understanding, and I shall keep your teaching;
I shall keep it with all my heart.

³⁵ Lead me in the path of your commandments, for that is my desire.

³⁶ Incline my heart to your decrees and not to unjust gain.

³⁷ Turn my eyes from beholding falsehood;
give me life in your way.

³⁸ Fulfill your promise I to your servant, which is for those who fear you.

³⁹ Turn away the reproach I that I dread, because your judgments are good.

⁴⁰ Behold, I long for your commandments;
by your righteousness enliven me.

SECOND READING: Romans 13:8-14

A reading from Romans:

⁸ Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹ The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not murder; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰ Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

¹¹ Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is already the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; ¹² the night is far gone; the day is near. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; ¹³ let us walk decently as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in illicit sex and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

We stand.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: Matthew 18:15-20

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew:

Glory to you O Lord.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] ¹⁵ “If your brother or sister sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If you are listened to, you have regained that one. ¹⁶ But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. ¹⁷ If that person refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church, and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a gentile and a tax collector. ¹⁸ Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. ¹⁹ Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

We sit.

HYMN OF THE DAY: “God, When Human Bonds Are Broken”

#603

APOSTLES' CREED

With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

The Apostles'
+ Creed +

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS

Reminded of God's gracious and abundant love, we offer our prayers, confident that God hears us.

After each petition:

...Hear us, O God, your mercy is great.

The Assisting Minister concludes the prayers:

Grant the prayers we have offered, what we have forgotten to ask, and whatever else you see that we need. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

MEAL

In the second half of our liturgy, we gather around the table, following Jesus' invitation. Here in this meal we encounter the risen Lord who gives himself for the forgiveness of sins and strengthening the Body of Christ.

PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

The congregation may greet one another with a gesture of peace, using these or similar words:

“Peace be with you.”

We sit.

OFFERING

An offering is gathered at this time to support the mission of the church and care for those in need. Our offerings are a humble and grateful response to the gifts that God has first given us. The offering plates will be passed by the ushers from the center aisle. If you give electronically, you can use the QR Code on this page to make your gift online through Tithely. (Please place visitor cards and communion cards in the offering plate at this time.)

We stand.

OFFERTORY SONG

Refrain

Oh, give thanks! Oh, give thanks! God's love en-dures for - ev - er! Oh, give thanks! Oh, give thanks! God's love en-dures for - ev - er!

1 With our dreams and our fears,
2 With our strength and our weak-ness,

with our joys and our pain,
with our gifts and our needs,

Refrain

we come, we come.
we come, we come.

OFFERING PRAYER

God of creation,
 you send rain and the earth springs forth abundantly.
 All blessings are from you;
 make us generous with what we have.
 Use our gifts, our abilities, and our hearts
 in service to you and in love to our neighbors, today and always.
 Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

YOUR GIVING MATTERS!

PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Holy God,
our Maker, Redeemer, and Healer,
in the harmonious world of your creation,
the plants and animals,
the seas and stars
were whole and well in your praise.
When sin had scarred the world,
you sent your Son to heal our ills and to form us again into one.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore,
his acts of healing,
his body given up,
and his victory over death,
we await that day when all the peoples of the earth will come to the river to enjoy the tree of life.
Send your Spirit upon us and this meal:
as grains scattered on the hillside become one bread,
so let your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth,
that all may be fed with the Bread of life, your Son.
Through him all glory and honor is yours,
Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit,
in your holy Church,
both now and forever.
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Christ invites you to this table.
All who are thirsty, all who are hungry, come!

Thanks be to God!

HOLY COMMUNION

We sit.

All are welcome at the Lord's Table! At the table of our Lord Jesus Christ, God nourishes faith, forgives sin, and calls us to be witnesses to the Gospel. Here we receive Christ's body and blood and God's gifts of forgiveness of sin, life, and salvation to be received by faith for the strengthening of faith. In this sacrament the crucified and risen Christ is present, giving his true body and blood as food and drink. This real presence is a mystery. Admission to the Sacrament is by invitation of the Lord — regardless of Church denomination — to those who are baptized. (Taken from the ELCA statement on worship. The Use and Means of Grace ©1997).

Ushers will invite you to come down the center aisle. If you are unable to come forward, signal an usher or raise your hand, and an assisting minister will bring the elements to you. We commune at the railing, filling up the rail from the center out.

Continued

GRAPE JUICE AND GLUTEN FREE WAFERS ARE AVAILABLE ON THE CENTER TABLE AS YOU COME FORWARD, or you may receive the bread and wine from the Pastor and/or Communion Assistants. You may kneel or stand at the railing. As the ministers give the bread and cup to you, they say these words:

“The body of Christ, given for you . . . The blood of Christ, shed for you.”

You may say: “Amen.”

Place your empty cup in the trays at the end of the railing, and return to your seat via the side aisle.

MUSIC DURING DISTRIBUTION

Verses 1 & 2 are sung in preparation for Holy Communion

For the Healing of the World

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with many measures containing triplets indicated by a '3' over a bracket. The lyrics are arranged in three columns, with some lines of text spanning across the musical staves. The lyrics are as follows:

1 Des - per - ate peo - ple are mak - ing their way to see

COMMUNION MUSIC: "God, Whose Giving Knows No Ending"

#678

We stand.

BLESSING AFTER COMMUNION

The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.
Amen.

Verse 3 is sung as the Post-Communion canticle

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.

Sustaining God,
with this bread and cup,
you nourish us with mercy and abundant life.
By your Spirit, send us from this table to serve a needy world.
Make us living signs of your liberation, healing, and love,
following the way of Jesus, in whose name we pray.
Amen.

SENDING

Our worship does not end, but continues in the world. In our daily lives we are called to be ministers of God's love and mercy as we live and serve by the power of the risen Christ.

Communion ministers may be sent to take the sacrament from this gathering to those who are absent.

Gracious God, you took the form of a servant, offering yourself as food, comfort, and strength to a sick and hurting world. Anoint with a servant heart those who take your word and Sacrament to our sisters and brothers. Grant grace, mercy, healing, and hope to those who feast on your body and blood and receive your words of new life. May we all recognize that we have a place and a home in the body of our Lord Jesus Christ.

BLESSING

The God of love
draw you into full accord and one mind,
in the body of Christ Jesus.
Amen.

The God of hope
grant you strength and joy in all circumstances through the interceding of the Spirit.
Amen.

The God of grace ✠ bless you now and forever.
Amen.

DISMISSAL

As the Spirit sends us forth into the world, let us remember who we are:

We are A Community of Servants Sharing in the Word and Work of Jesus.

Go out in joy. Be led forth in peace.

Thanks be to God.

 IN OUR
Thoughts and Prayers

Prayers for the World

For world leaders to lead toward justice and mercy in all countries.

For those in danger from wars and violence, particularly in Gaza, Iran, Lebanon, Ukraine, Nigeria, Sudan, and here in the United States.

For victims of flooding along the border of China and Nepal.

Prayers for our Community

For safety and well-being for those who are poor, incarcerated, unhoused, and for the foreigner among us.

For all students, teachers, and staff in Waynesboro City and Augusta County as they begin a new school year. Our hearts and prayers go out to all the students, parents and staff at Westwood Elementary School.

For WARM as they begin their search for a new Executive Director, and for Alec Gunn as we give thanks for the faithful work he has done in this role.

Prayers for the Church

For the Christian church throughout the world, that it may sow peace, justice, and grace through all the earth.

For the Spirit to guide this season of transition at Grace with joy, understanding, and hope-filled vision.

For the congregations of the Virginia Synod, especially the parish of Faith and St. Peter's Lutheran Churches in Staunton and Churchville, and Pastor Rodney Ronneberg.

Virginia Synod Council as they meet at Grace Church this week.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Special thanks to Russell Blackburn, who is serving Grace as Organist while Mike Myers' is away, will be at Grace August 16th through September 18th. Thank you for sharing your gifts and talents Russell!

As several have asked for copies of Pastor Alex's sermons, we have set up a holder on the round table in the Nave with copies of every sermon since he arrived. We will try to continue doing this Grace Quilters--September is kickoff season for Grace Quilters!

Join us Tuesdays beginning September 15, 9:30 -11:30 a.m., at the church Fellowship Hall. Lunch follows usually at Panera. All are welcome, no experience is needed! New this season: We are trying something fresh with pre-bundled, coordinating fabrics ready to cut into 11" squares. The squares may be cut at church or at home. During our 2025/2026 season, the hands and hearts of Grace Quilters reached communities both near and far. Thanks to your dedication, our quilts brought comfort to:

- Lutheran World Relief: Sending global hope to families facing extreme poverty and crisis.
- Hurricane Helene Relief: Providing warmth and comfort to neighbors rebuilding after the storm.
- River Edge Assisted Living: Delivered as personalized Christmas gifts, to bring cheer to our local residents.

These quilts are truly examples of God's Work, Our Hands, in action.

Praying for the Virginia Synod: As we are a part of a wider movement of Lutheran congregations across the state, nation, and world, we will take the opportunity to pray for our siblings of faith. Each week, we will lift up a congregation of the Virginia Synod and their active minister(s) by name, beginning with our nearest neighbors in the Southern Valley Conference. The word "synod" is Greek for "on the way together" and our prayers remind us who walks this faithful road with us each week.

Pastor Alex would like to invite you to a weekly time of conversation and bible study. If you are interested, please complete one of the forms on the table in the Nave and place in the basket.

A meeting for all youth (grades 6th - 12th) and their families, will be held in the Fellowship Hall, Sunday September 13, after worship. Lunch will be provided. Please RSVP to Pastor Alex by September 9. We will discuss Youth Ministry at Grace, Virginia Synod Youth Events, and assess interest in attending the 2027 ELCA Youth Gathering!

Children's Sunday School Returns September 13! Each Sunday after worship, children from Pre-K to 5th Grade are invited to meet Holly Carper, Jane Blosser, and our Sunday School teachers in the back of the sanctuary to walk downstairs together for class. Classes focus on the stories we hear in worship, growing in our knowledge of the bible, and forming faithful friendships! If you are interested in being a Sunday School teacher, please reach out to Holly or Pastor Alex for more information.

Adult Faith Formation will take place on Sundays at 8:30 a.m. in the Seminar Room, taught by Pastor Alex. All are welcome to attend, with no pre-requisite of membership or expectation of perfect attendance. Coffee and hot water for tea will be provided, and class members are welcome to bring snacks to share. Email Pastor Alex (pastorzuber@gmail.com) if you plan to attend! The classes this fall will be September 13, 20, and 27, where will share in a study called "Two by Two". We will explore biblical models of ministry rooted in partnership, collaboration, and continuity. We'll hold this lens of biblical witness to the ministries of Grace to consider how we support one another in living out our mission.

Mission Endowment Fund – To date, grant requests totaling $24,750 have been approved. $12,043 remains for grants in 2026. Materials relating to this second round of grants, including the Grant Request Form, are available in the back of the narthex. The materials also may be obtained by contacting Nancy Dowdy, the Church Administrative Secretary. Deadline for the requested applications is September 30th.

This year's God's Work, Our Hands service project will be the Rise Against Hunger event held at Kate Collins Middle School on Saturday, September 19, from 10:30 to 12:30. Sign-up sheets will be on the back table starting in August. This is a fun event and we are expecting to have 14 or more area churches joining us this year. The meals we pack go to help with global hunger relief. If you need additional information or questions about the event, please contact Jerry or Gwen Kite. We are encouraged to sign up on line. The web link will be on the table with the sign-up sheet.

You are invited to a Service of Holy Communion with the Order of Installation for The Rev. Alexander C. Zuber as the 21st Pastor of Grace on Sunday, September 20! The service starts at 5:00 p.m. and will celebrate the ministry of Grace, look with hope to our shared future, and give thanks to God for the mission we share. The service will be followed by a dinner reception under a tent, and all are welcome to join us. Join us for this faithful celebration with special music, joyful worship, and fellowship with all our partners in ministry. The service will also be live-streamed on our YouTube channel and a link will be provided.

The 2026 CROP Walk will take place on Sunday, September 20 beginning at 2:00 pm at North Park. The walk route is along the Greenway. Walkers are needed for our Grace Team. Register to walk and/or make a donation to our team at www.crophungerwalk.org/waynesborova. Our team name is Grace Lutheran Waynesboro. The team goal is to raise $1,800 and the goal for all teams is $20,000. Twenty-five percent of all local money raised stays here in the community, split between Blue Ridge Area Food Bank, Disciples' Kitchen and VPAS Meals on Wheels. The remaining money raised goes to support the work of Church World Service. As of September 1, our Grace Team has raised $250. Karen will be in the narthex after service on September 6, September 13 and September 20 to accept any donations. If you would like to give by check, please make the check payable to CWS/CROP. You may also give through your offering and designating for CROP Walk. If you have any questions, please contact Karen Walck at 765-480-9920.

Backpack Update - We will begin packing the food bags (backpacks) for the schools this week. This year we will be packing for children at Wenonah, William Perry, Berkeley Glenn and Westwood. Westwood has been included this year for the first time. Kiwanis Club will deliver the food on Tuesday mornings, Grace will pack every other Wednesday morning and St. John's will pack every other Tuesday morning. The Kiwanis Club will pick up the bags and deliver them to the schools on Thursdays.

Renewing Homes Project Update - Grace and Zion Lutheran Churches joined together to do a work project on a home in Waynesboro with Renewing Homes of Augusta. For the two-day project August 27 and 28, we had 9 or more people working each day. Our work included replacing both the back steps to the deck and the deck plus some yard cleanup removal of old lumber. Thanks to everyone who volunteered with the project. If you are interested in joining one of the projects or for more information about Renewing Homes you can contact Glen Gray, Rew Walck or Jerry Kite.

Food Pantry Collections: A huge thanks to everyone as you continue to bring food for the food bank box near the office. Your donations are much appreciated. To date, we have collected over 5,746 pounds of food (we have made sixty deliveries, thirty to Main Street United Methodist, and thirty to Calvary United Methodist, Stuarts Draft). There is a need for diapers, especially sizes 3-6. 63 pounds of diapers have been delivered to Calvary United Methodist. In addition, 50 pounds of condiments have been delivered to the Bread Basket.
